Welcome ///// to Eivissa

Ibiza has everything a family could dream of for their summer holiday: nature, history, events, relaxation, adventure, beaches, gastronomy, sports, trips, outdoor activities...and much more. Ibiza is mild all year round and its beaches have crystal clear water that can be enjoyed whatever the season. It is also home to the Mediterranean's best-conserved Castle from the Renaissance period; a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Eivissa is a journey, a discovery and a legendary city that welcomes children and families with a smile. In fact, since 2014, Ibiza has been a "Child Friendly City"; an official Unicef recognition given to communities who work to protect the rights and wellbeing of children and young people.

Similarly, Eivissa's investment in Family Tourism enables visitors to enjoy privileged natural surroundings, a great quality of life and all the cultural opportunities that a forward-looking yet historical city has to offer.

Discover a monumental city that has conserved both its ties to the past and traditions, at the same time as maintaining the joy and cosmopolitan character of a destination bathed in sunlight.

Eivissa means fun and excitement all year round. In autumn and winter, sunny days and pleasant temperatures mean that the beaches are the perfect place for outdoor family games. Both during these months and in spring, there is a diverse programme of leisure and sports activities by the sea. All activities are free if booked in advance.

On the weekends, you can spend the morning enjoying family visits to the Museu d'art Contemporani (Museum of Contemporary Art) and the Museu Puget (Puget Museum), which offer special activities for the little ones, all year round.

Another place for families to visit is Puig des Molins, the world's biggest and best-conserved Necropolis, which also offers regular workshops and activities for children.

You can make the most of each day in Eivissa, and when night falls, you won't be short of things to do as a family. Every Saturday, children are fascinated by the dramatised visit to Dalt Vila, which helps them to understand how the walls were built and what life was like during the Renaissance period.

The Portal de Ses Taules and Portal Nou entrances are impressive, as is the route to the museumised bastions, Sant Pere and Sant Jaume, with interactive spaces where you can discover the history of the walls and the weapons that were used during the period.

What family doesn't want to take a photo with the Dalt Vila cannons? How many children have played on the only monument in the world honouring priveteers? Few places are as stimulating for the imagination and adventure as the ones children can find at Dalt Vila or in the Port of Eivissa. It's also home to another unique statue: a homage to hippies, featuring a girl walking alongside her father, representing a universal symbol of tolerance and coexistence, which at the same time signifies the city's warm welcome to children.

Eivissa is a city where children can enjoy themselves alongside adults, with new spaces to enable families to enjoy their stay even more. The pedestrian street Paseo de Vara de Rey has become the heart of the city; a meeting and play space. While adults can sit and have a chat on a terrace, enjoy lunch, dinner or a wander, the little ones can have fun playing away from the traffic. The Plaça del Parc, the pedestrian streets in the Marina neighbourhood and the Es Martell area are permanent meeting points, as are the playgrounds dotted around the city.

There are a number of important dates on the calendar of family events throughout the year. Children are the main focus at Christmas, the traditional Carnestoltes parade and the Medieval Party. The programme of events is ongoing at the Can Ventosa cultural centre, and during summer, there are plenty of free open-air concerts and film screenings that are geared towards families.

Eivissa is one of Spain's pioneering cities and offers a family friendly restaurant guide, 'Apetitós', which recommends 20 establishments where children are more than welcome.

Be surprised: Discover the magic of Ibiza for children and their families.

Children's Areas/ Parks

Eivissa is the perfect destination for family holidays, with 25 play areas aimed at children between 3 and 12 years old. Depending on the park, the age ranges can be from 3 to 6, 6 to 8 or 8 to 12, and the new Playa d' en Bossa play area is the first to install play equipment for 3 to 12-year olds.

Beaches

Eivissa's beaches are perfect for enjoying time with young children thanks to their facilities: easy access to the sea, clear water and everything you need to enjoy a day of swimming, strolls and games.

During winter, the Eivissa City Hall launches the "La platja està oberta" ("The beach is open") programme, enabling families to enjoy many activities beside the sea, thanks to a mild climate with plenty of sunny days, turning the beaches into meeting points for families all year round.

All the beaches have lifeguards and first-aiders (with defibrillators, staff and equipment). The town has three beaches: Figueretes, Talamanca and Playa d'en Bossa.

* Figueretes *

Ses Figueretes beach is located in an area with the same name, and is made up of various coves or small beaches, connected to small, rocky areas. It could be said that this is Eivissa's most quintessential beach, as it's located within the urban area nearest to the city centre and can be accessed using public transport, on foot or by bike.

This beach has golden sand and calm water, as well as all the necessary facilities: recycling bins, showers, cleaning services, places to eat, drink, sun lounger and parasol hire, boat hire, sailing club and bicycle parking.

It's also classified as an accessible beach because it has disabled access and a beach buggy.

The nearest medical centre is hospital Can Misses, 1.5km away.

* Talamanca *

The city's biggest beach is located in the bay of Talamanca, adjacent to the port. Some 900m long, it's the biggest beach in the area, and its width facilitates a raised, wooden boardwalk on the sand, making it ideal for a stroll. The beach has many facilities, from leisure to catering and accommodation, but its size means it remains a relaxing location all year round.

The shallow water, fine, golden sand and a location that shields it from the wind, so the water is always calm – the perfect spot for families with young children. It's accessible using public transport, by car (there is parking for between 50 and 100 vehicles), or on foot (about 20-25 minutes).

In terms of services and facilities, it offers hazard warnings, toilets, recycling bins, foot washing stations, cleaning services, places to eat and drink, sun lounger and parasol hire, boat hire, a sailing club and bicycle parking. It's located next to the Botafoch marina.

It's also classified as an accessible beach as it has disabled access and a beach buggy.

The nearest medical centre is the Vila health centre, located on Avenida 8 de Agosto, which directly connects the beach to the Port of Eivissa.

* Platja d'en Bossa *

700m of the 2700m that make up Playa d'en Bossa belong to the city of Eivissa. This area is located right after Ses Figueretes, and is perfect for sunbathing and swimming, free from hazards and danger.

Thanks to its ease of access and the wide range of services it offers, it's the perfect place for people looking for a range of sports, as well as all types of tourist facilities.

It has gold sand and calm water, just like the other beaches in the area. It's easily accessible on foot (it's the next beach after Ses Figueretes), by car (it's easy to find parking), or by public transport.

With regards to the services and facilities, it has hazard warnings, toilets, recycling bins, foot washing stations, cleaning services, places to eat and drink, sun lounger and parasol hire, boat hire and bicycle parking.

It's also an accessible beach with access walkways and a beach buggy.

Family leisure and activities

* Dramatised visits to Dalt Vila and the Necropolis *

The little ones can also enjoy cultural visits which have been specially adapted for them. For example, the dramatised visits to Dalt Vila (visits to the city's historic centre to discover what life was like during the construction of the renaissance castle and to learn what society was like at the time), or visits to the Puig des Molins Necropolis (organised once a month, all year round, to explore the most extensive and best-conserved Phoenician-Punic structure in the Western Mediterranean).

Both the dramatised visits to Dalt Vil and the Puig des Molins Necropolis offer special prices for large families, and both must be reserved in advance via phone: 971 399 322, or via email: informacioturistica@eivissa.es

* Family visits to the Museu d'art Contemporani d'Eivissa and the Museu Puget *

Without a doubt, the whole family will enjoy a trip through the history of Dalt Vila. One of the best memories from every trip is the holiday photos taken with the cannons or the interactive spaces such as the Sant Pere or Sant Jaume bastions. The heart of this World Heritage site is full of fascinating spots to enjoy as a family.

The little ones are the main focus of the guided visits to the museum which take place every weekend of the year. Every Saturday and Sunday morning, there are family activities at the Museu d'art Contemporani d'Eivissa (MACE) and Museu Puget. Both offer different activities, workshops and guided tours for families and groups, which vary depending on the time of year. There is a general museum tour (permanent collection) or a special museum tour (temporary exhibition), followed by a practical workshop related to the works of art.

As there are a limited number of places, you must sign up and reserve in advance: MACE 971 902 723 and Museo Puget 971 392 147; or by sending an email to mac@eivissa.es.

* «Viu la Posidònia» *

The sea also has surprises in store for everyone, and the Eivissa City Hall has developed and launched a programme of activities called “Viu la Posidònia” (“Live Posidonia”). It's an ambitious project that aims to demonstrate the importance of the Posidonia Oceanica, or Neptune Grass, part of the World Heritage declaration, in order to ensure that all visitors get to discover the meadows of this endemic Mediterranean plant, since it is key to the protection of the coast and the quality of the water.

The programme of activities aims to raise awareness about the importance of the Neptune grass meadows.

They offer activities related to nature as well as active tourism (kayak visits to the meadows); cultural and art activities (outdoor photography exhibitions at the Port of Ibiza, jewellery exhibitions by international jewellers with their own Posidonia collections), gastronomy (daily menus, dishes/tapas and event-themed cocktails).

-Make the Posidonia your trip's greatest discovery –

* «La platja està oberta» *

Due to the mild temperatures during winter, autumn and spring on the island, the Ibiza City Hall runs a programme of activities called “La platja està oberta” (“The beach is open”). This programme ensures that visitors have the opportunity to take part in sports and outdoor activities, as well as being able to visit the Heritage area in the city of Eivissa.

The programme of activities is organised by the Eivissa City Hall, in collaboration with the Island Council, consisting of sports, leisure activities and workshops for children.

* «Ball Pagès in Martell» *

A taste of the island’s culture and tradition, from typical Ibizan dance, to the instruments and traditional island music. These exhibitions have been taking place for the last 16 years.

The “colles” (or dance groups), will do a route from the “Pescador” statue, to Plaza Es Martell, playing their instruments until they reach the starting point for the dancing. They will also explain the origins and different types of traditional instruments and dress.

A unique opportunity for everyone to discover more about folklore and the traditions that are still ongoing, today.

Family Friendly restaurants

The Eivissa City Hall has created a family friendly restaurant guide (Apetitós), featuring 20 restaurants in the local area.

This initiative is breaking new ground at a national level, and aims to ensure that the city continues fulfilling its promise to be a Child Friendly City and follows the Local Plan for Children and Young People, launched by the Eivissa City Hall's Department of Education.

The objective is to establish a quality label, under which the 20 restaurants forming part of the initiative will be required to meet a series of criteria, making them establishments where children are more than welcome.

The Ibiza City Hall have put 10 requirements in place, such as children's cutlery/crockery, changing rooms, highchairs, facilities for heating baby food, spaces for breastfeeding, children's books and that the premises must be safe for young children.

Shopping //// Areas

* La Marina shopping area *

The area around La Marina is known as ground zero for shopping and tradition. Here you can find many different types of shops (traditional and more modern), in addition to one of the island's best-known hippy markets.

The main part of this area is the Mercat Vell, a traditional produce market built in 1872, located in front of the Portal de Ses Taules. Today, in addition to fresh fruits and vegetables, flowers and organic produce, there are also stalls selling artisan products. The Mercat Vell is located in a pedestrian area, great for meeting up and going for a stroll, surrounded by shops, bars and busy terraces that are open all year round.

The area also hosts activities to help promote local produce and gastronomy ("Peixets al Port" and "Sabors d'Eivissa").

For more information and activities, visit; www.eivissa.es or <http://turisme.eivissa.es>; call us at 971 399 232; or email us at informacioturistica@eivissa.es.

* Mercat Nou shopping area *

The city centre revolves around the Mercat Nou and all the surrounding streets. Here, visitors can enjoy a wide range of shops and restaurants. The typical products lure in families who want to taste local cuisine, and for children, sweet treats and surrounding shops (toys and clothes) are handy to keep in mind.

It's a pleasure to wander around this market (est.1978), and check out the stalls offering a wide variety of fresh produce, from meat to fish, fruit and vegetables. The majority are local to Ibiza and stand out for their exceptional quality and flavour. This is a very lively market right in the heart of the city, where you will always be given friendly, personalised service.

* Es Pratet shopping area *

This is one of the most important streets in the city and is located next to the port which links Ibiza to Formentera. In this area there are various internationally-known shops, and the street connects the other local shopping areas and links the shops in the port area to those within the city itself.
